Introduction

The growth and integrity of Dodgeball depends on the outcome of sporting events and competitions being based largely on the competing merits of the participants involved. In addition to that objective, the DFA has adopted these rules which are in conjunction with the International Centre for Sport Securities Guiding Principles for Protecting the Integrity of Sports Competitions, the Council of Europe Convention on the Manipulation of Sports Competitions and the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions.

The DFA Member Continental and National Federations have implemented similar rules and regulations or incorporate these Rules into their rules, as modified appropriately for national level competition, in order to safeguard the integrity of competitions held under their respective jurisdictions.

Application

These Rules shall apply to all Participants who participate, assist in or prepare Athletes to participate in DFA Competitions or Competitions of Major Event Organisations, provided that if a Major Event Organisation has its own rules on the prevention of the competition manipulation those rules shall apply to violations committed in relation with the competitions of the Major Event Organisation. Each Participant shall be automatically bound by, and be required to comply with, these Rules by virtue of such participation, assistance or preparation.

It shall be the personal responsibility of every Participant to make himself or herself aware of these Rules including, without limitation, what conduct constitutes a violation of the Rules and to comply with those requirements. Participants should also be aware that conduct prohibited under these Rules may also constitute a criminal offence and/or a breach of other applicable laws and regulations. Participants must comply with all applicable laws and regulations at all times.

Each Participant submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the DFA Ethics Committee to hear and determine charges brought by DFA and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport determine any appeal from the DFA Ethics Committee decision.

Notice under these Rules to a Participant who is under the jurisdiction of a Member Federation may be accomplished by delivery of the notice to the Member Federation concerned. The Member Federation shall be responsible for making immediate contact with the Participant to whom the notice is applicable.

Disclosing Inside Information to any person and/or entity, with or without Benefit, where the Participant knew or should have known that such disclosure might lead to the information being used for the purposes of Betting, any form of manipulation of any Competition or any other corrupt purposes.

Giving and/or receiving a Benefit for the provision of Inside Information regardless of whether any Inside Information is actually provided.

Failure to report a Potential Manipulation or Manipulation of Competition

Failing to report to the DFA or other sports organisation concerned or a relevant disclosure/reporting mechanism or authority, at the first available opportunity, full details of any approaches or invitations received by the Participant to engage in conduct or incidents that could amount to a violation of these Rules.

Failing to report to the DFA or a relevant disclosure/reporting mechanism or authority, at the first available opportunity, full details of any incident, fact or matter that comes to the attention of the Participant or of which the Participant should have been reasonably aware, including approaches or invitations that have been received by another Participant to engage in conduct that could amount to a violation of these Rules.

Failure to cooperate

Failing to cooperate with any investigation carried out by DFA or other sports organisation in relation to a possible breach of these Rules, including, without limitation, failing to provide accurately, completely and without undue delay any information and/or documentation and/or access or assistance requested by DFA or the competent sports organisation as part of such investigation.

Obstructing or delaying any investigation that may be carried out by DFA or other sports organisation in relation to a possible violation of these Rules, including without limitation concealing, tampering with or destroying any documentation or other information that may be relevant to the investigation.

Application

In determining whether a violation of these Rules has been committed, the following are not relevant:

- a. Except as to a Competition in which the Participant is directly participating, whether or not the Participant is participating in the Competition concerned;
- b. The outcome of the Competition on which the Bet was made or intended to be made;
- c. Whether any Benefit or other consideration was actually given or received;
- d. The nature or outcome of the Bet;
- e. Whether or not the Participant's effort or performance in the Competition concerned was (or could be expected to be) affected by the acts or omission in question;

f. Whether or not the result of the Competition concerned was (or could be expected to be) affected by the acts or omission in question;

g. Whether or not the manipulation included a violation of a technical rule of the respective sports organisation

h. Whether or not the Competition was attended by the competent national or international representative of the sports organisation.

Any form of aid, abetment or attempt by a Participant that could culminate in a violation of these Rules shall be treated as if a violation had been committed, whether or not such an act in fact resulted in a violation and/or whether that violation was committed deliberately or negligently.

Procedures

Any allegation or suspicion of a violation of these Rules shall be promptly reported to DFA for investigation and possible charge in accordance with these Rules.

Anonymous reporting will be facilitated. The anonymity of any reporting person(s) who desires to remain anonymous will be respected by the organisation to whom they report. The identity of any reporting person may only be disclosed if such disclosure is both necessary for the purposes of any investigation into an alleged violation of these Rules and the agreement in writing of the person to the disclosure of his or her identity has been obtained, or as may be required by law.

The DFA will conduct an investigation into the activities of any Participant that it believes may have committed a violation of these Rules and may appoint one or more persons for this purpose. Such investigation may be conducted in conjunction with relevant competent national or international authorities (including criminal, administrative, professional and/or judicial authorities) and all Participants must cooperate fully with such investigations. The DFA will have discretion, where it deems it appropriate, to stay its own investigation pending the outcome of investigations conducted by other competent authorities.

By participation or assistance in a Competition, or preparing an Athlete for a Competition, each Participant shall be deemed to have agreed for the purposes of applicable data protection laws and other laws, and for all other purposes, to have consented to the collection, processing, disclosure or any other use of information relating to his activities (including without limitation personal information) to the extent permitted under these Rules and shall confirm such agreement in writing upon demand.

Where following investigation DFA decides to charge a Participant with a violation of these Rules, the DFA shall transfer any such matter to the DFA Ethics Committee for determination.

The principle of confidentiality shall be strictly respected by all involved organisations and any persons concerned with respect to any report, investigation, hearing and determination of any alleged violation of these Rules until it is determined by the DFA that any public disclosure of the matter should occur. Information with respect to such procedures shall only be exchanged with entities having a need to know.

In any case where DFA decides to charge a Participant with a violation under these Rules, the DFA shall have discretion, in circumstances where the DFA considers that the integrity of the sport could otherwise be seriously undermined, to provisionally suspend the Participant pending the DFA Ethics Committee expedited determination of the alleged violation. Alternatively, the Participant may accept a voluntary suspension from Competition provided that it is confirmed in writing to the DFA. A voluntary suspension shall be effective only from the date of receipt of the Participant's written confirmation of such to the DFA.

Where a provisional suspension is imposed, this shall be taken into consideration in the determination of any further period of suspension or other sanction which may be ultimately imposed on the Participant.

If a Participant retires whilst a disciplinary procedure under these Rules is underway, the DFA shall retain jurisdiction to complete the relevant procedure and to impose any appropriate sanction. If the Participant retires before any disciplinary procedure has begun, the DFA shall nevertheless have jurisdiction to conduct the relevant procedure and impose any appropriate sanction.

Sanctions

If the DFA Ethics Committee decides that a Participant has committed a violation of these Rules, the DFA Ethics Committee shall be entitled to impose sanctions.

Financial Sanctions

The DFA Ethics Committee shall have discretion to impose a fine up to a maximum amount of the value of any Benefit received by the Participant as a result of, or in relation to, any violation(s) of these Rules.

Disqualification of Results

A violation of these Rules by an Athlete occurring during or in connection with a Competition in which the Athlete is participating may lead to disqualification of the Athlete and the annulment of all the Athlete's results obtained in that Competition with all consequences, including but not limited to forfeiture of all titles, medals, ranking points and/or prizes.

Where any provision of these Rules has been violated by a member of an International Dodgeball Squad may result in disqualification from the Competition in question, with consequences including but not limited to forfeiture of all titles, medals, ranking points and/or prizes.

Education and Rehabilitation

The DFA adopts WDA's "Throw it Out" Campaign and Educational Program has been designed as a prevention program. However if and when necessary the program will be used as a form of rehabilitation if a participant should breach any regulations set within this policy.

A failure to co-operate by the Participant with any investigation or requests for information; any previous violations by the Participant; the Participant receiving or being due to receive a significant Benefit in connection with the violation; the violation affecting or having the potential to affect the course or result of a Competition; the Participant displaying a lack of remorse (including, for example, refusing to take part in anti-corruption educational programs organised by the DFA; and any other aggravating factor the DFA Ethics Committee deems relevant.

If a Participant violates any prohibition on participation in a Competition imposed in accordance with these Rules, such Participant shall be disqualified immediately from the relevant Competition and the period of ineligibility originally imposed in accordance with these Rules shall recommence from the date of such violation.

These Rules shall continue to apply to any ineligible Participant and any violation committed during a period of ineligibility shall be treated as a distinct violation and separate proceedings shall be brought against the Participant in accordance with these Rules. Once the period of the Participant's ineligibility has expired, he or she will become automatically re-eligible to participate, provided that he or she has completed to the DFA's satisfaction any official betting and anti-corruption education or rehabilitation programme imposed on him or her as a sanction by the DFA Ethics Committee; has paid, in full, any fine imposed under these Rules and/or any order of costs made against him or her by the DFA Ethics Committee; and has agreed to subject himself or herself to any reasonable and proportionate monitoring of his or her future activities.

Recognition of Decision Making

Final decisions of a Major Event Organisation or other sport organisation in relation to a Participant that are within the Major Event Organisation's or other sport organisation's jurisdiction and based on the same or similar rules as these Rules may be recognised and respected by the DFA upon receipt of notice of the same. Any disciplinary process, so far as determining a Participant's sanction beyond the sanction imposed by the Major Event Organisation is concerned, shall be determined by DFA Ethics Committee in accordance with these Rules.

Interpretation

These Rules may be amended from time to time by the DFA. Rules on the prevention of the manipulation of Competitions are, by their nature, Competition rules governing the conditions under which the sport is to be held. They are not intended to be subjected to or limited by the requirements and legal standards applicable to criminal proceedings or employment matters. The policies and standards set out in these Rules as a basis for the fight against corruption and manipulation in the sport of Dodgeball represent a broad consensus of those with an interest in fair sport and should be respected by all courts and adjudicating bodies. Other than where reference is made to the DFA or WDA Rules set out within this document, these Rules shall be interpreted as an independent and autonomous text and not by reference to existing law or statutes. The headings in these Rules are for convenience only and shall not be deemed to be part of the substance of these Rules or to affect in any way the language of the provisions to which they refer. If any Rule or provision of these Rules is held to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal for any reason, it shall be deemed to be deleted and the Rules shall otherwise remain in full force and effect.
